Los Angeles / Europe (ICG 600)

features – Ghost House, Escape Room, Girl From Nagasaki, Audry, One In The Gun television – Scary Tales, The American Revolution, Nostradamus Effect

A father's gift of a video camera was the spark that ignited Periluigi Malavasi's life long love of filmmaking. With an eye for light and composition, Gigi immigrated to the US, attended film school, and has been working steady ever since. Malavasi's camera work has been nominated for Emmy and Telly awards, winning three in the process. He brings an old fashioned work ethic to all jobs: listen, learn, collaborate, and create. Gigi is serious and passionate about work while remaining a really nice guy who never forgets how to have a good time on the set. Based in Los Angeles, Periluigi is available for work worldwide.

Ray Peschke
Los Angeles / Europe (ICG 600)

features – Captain Abu Raed, Woman Thou Art Loosed, Ocean Park
commercials – Monster, Volkswagen, Faberge, Motel 6, Heineken, Los Angeles Times

For years, Ray Peschke's name in Hollywood has been identified with innovative lighting. His brilliant work on such prestigious films as JFK, Born on the 4th of July, Natural Born Killers, He Got Game, Wag the Dog, The Usual Suspects and many others, has earned him the reputation as a lighting master. It's only natural that his progression from lighting to cinematography has also garnered critical acclaim. With diverse and challenging films under his belt as cinematographer, including Fascination (super 35mm starring Jacqueline Bisset, Adam Garcia, and Stuart Wilson), Apostate (35mm starring Dennis Hopper) and Woman Thou Art Loosed (HD, starring Kimberly Elise), Ray's vast years of experience are greatly appreciated by directors here and abroad. Ray has recently taken delivery on a new RED camera system.

Over 300 episodes of network television; 30 plus feature films; 6 Emmy nominations (2 wins); membership in the American Society of Cinematographers and the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences – just a few of DP Roy H. Wagner's many accomplishments. Growing up in the Midwest, Wagner reached out to Hollywood cinematographers who, surprised by his ambition and interest, agreed to mentor him. Upon arrival in Los Angeles, Roy was introduced to the greatest cinematographers working in Hollywood as well as access to studios and projects. Producers soon learned that Roy had absorbed the knowledge and was himself, a talented DP and a blossoming career entailed. Did we mention every pilot he's shot has been picked up to series? Based in Los Angeles, Roy is available for work worldwide

Costume Designers

QueenSilvia Akuchie
Atlanta (IA 479)

features – First Impression; (as personal) Gone Girl, Alex Cross, Madea's Christmas television – If Loving You Is Wrong, For Better or Worse, House of Payne

QueenSilvia Akuchie came to fashion design in College when creative urges overcame her passion for the study of law. Based in Atlanta, Akuchie has become a rising star in the fashion industry. When not styling some of the most recognizable talents in the world, she's busy with her own fashion concierge and image consulting. Her talents have led to many opportunities, including being the first designer to style for the OWN network and a long relationship with Tyler Perry. QueenSilvia's goal is to bring the director's vision to the screen, while making the cast feel comfortable with and in their character. She is a collaborator who listens, learns and then dazzles.

Catherine Ashton
Toronto (IA 873)

television – Against The Wall, Covert Affairs, Dan for Mayor, Beautiful People, Beauty and The Beast, Talk to Me, The National Tree

Catherine Ashton began her career styling Artists for CBS records where her work appeared on numerous music videos. She entered the film business at the bottom and her creative work and warm personality has brought her to the top. Whether it is for Meg Ryan, Hillary Duff or Kevin Spacey, Ashton's incredible eye for fashion and character driven designs are greeted with delight. Working closely with the director's vision she helps actors formulate and discover the characters they are about to embody. This close collaboration enables the cast to slip into their characters with ease. Catherine understands the bottom line and producers quickly appreciate her ability to create looks on a shoestring. Based in Toronto, Catherine is available for work worldwide.

Elvis Davis

features – 5 Days Of War, Until Death, Age of Heroes, Alone, Soulboy, It's Alive
television – An Angel for May, Mersey Beat, Hornblower, Peacekeepers

Fashion and costume are in Elvis's blood. His father was a bespoke tailor and Elvis started designing clothes at age 11 before moving into the family business and then setting up his own store in the 1970s. From then, he started to develop an interest in military and vintage costume, which led in turn to working in film and television. Since that time, he has built up a considerable collection of uniforms, has contributed numerous magazine articles on the subject, and has studied most of the major battle sites in Europe. For five-time Oscar winning film 'Saving Private Ryan', Elvis sourced or made over 750 authentic costumes from stores around Europe and from his own collection. Based in London and eligible for a USA O-1 work visa, he is available for work worldwide.

Los Angeles

features (as key) – Eyewitness, Mercenaries, Christmas in the City, Deadly Spa television – Valor, Zoo, Ruby's Studio; (as AD) Waiting in the Wings, The Musical

Michelle Green's first discovered her love for Costumes at a young age, running across the classic holiday film "White Christmas." When she saw the designs of Edith Head, which was all it took. As a designer she's passionate in ability to take a film maker's vision and elevate story through costume, to spotlight the hero before he speaks or the villain before he hits. Michelle fine tunes every look for a little extra kick, with the uncanny ability to find the elusive "Hero" items or to create a far fetch design. She prides herself on not just hearing the words "I like this" but pushes to exceed for the status of "I love this." She runs her department with great efficiency, professionalism and passion allowing for the best work to shine through.

Darragh Marmorstein
Los Angeles (CDG 892)

features – Christmas in Palm Springs, Inverse, Sunset Bar, Locker 13, Hotel California commercials – Samsung, LG, Keyes Automotive

Darragh's strong visual perception and past experience as a Photographer make her abilities to translate the director's vision, effortless. Her vintage aesthetic, and expansive knowledge of period and contemporary costume, with attention to detail, color, and texture, lend a rich stylistic design quality to every project she designs. Grace under pressure, producer/director Fred Olen Ray introduced her to a table of producers and directors as the "costume designer, whose department you'll never have to worry about." Based in Los Angeles, Darragh is available to work everywhere.

features – Love Is All You Need?, Without Men, The Perfect Family, Caffeine, Gacy television – Honeymoon With Mom, They Are Among Us; (as asst designer) Roswell

California native Oneita Parker knew at an early age she wanted to work with fabrics. After a stint at the Fashion Institute for Design and Merchandising, Parker headed to NYC and graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology. She promptly went to work in the rag trade first in Hong Kong and then in New York, but Hollywood drew her back and she's been designing costumes for film and TV since. Oneita's goal is to take the script and director's vision and bring them to life via the character's costume. She is a hands-on designer who not only sketches her work and can also manufacture the fabric and sew the pieces. Parker's warm, inclusive personality puts the most nervous actor (or producer) at ease. Based in Los Angeles, Oneita is available for work worldwide.

Júlia Patkós

television – Rob!, American Teenager, Becker, Cheers, Out of Jimmy's Head commercials – Palmolive, McDonalds
features – L.A. Blues

Sharon began her design career working in a costume shop and learned the entertainment field in depth. Experience in features, commercials and network TV has given Sharon the ability to function under pressure in any atmosphere and create outstanding results. As executive producer Dave Hackel remarked, "Sharon will respect your schedule and your budget. Your actors will love and trust her." And, you will have at least one department that you can cross off your list of things to worry about.

Production Designers / Art Directors

Katherine Bulovic
Los Angeles / Chicago

features – Down and Distance, Lost Focus, Rice Girl television – Paul Merton's Birth of Hollywood, Secret History of Religion, Broken Wings

Katherine Bulovic is about creativity, art and their intersection in the filmmaking process. Following her graduation from the prestigious School of the Art Institute of Chicago, Bulovic specialized in painting, silk-screening and photography while designing restaurant interiors and commercial promotions. When a chance to design for magician Lance Burton's Las Vegas production kindled a dormant interest in theatre and film, she enrolled in Columbia College production design program. Katherine has a unique eye for details and the "grand" picture. She excels in period work, as well as present day design. Impressed directors most often ask her, "How did you know or how did you do that?" Producers smile since she gets it done on time and on budget.

Chris Giammalvo

With a background in both TV and features James is passionate about design, and he uses that passion to convey the essence of narrative. He delights in bringing stories to life through careful design and color. Producers quickly learn to expect the exceptional; the one quote we hear often is "I don't know how he did it!" Plus he is a really nice guy to work with and always a positive force on any set. James is available for work worldwide.*

Daniel Whifler
Los Angeles

features – A Home Out West, Spike, Hidden Agenda, The Glass Jar
television – Happily Never After, Blackout, Son of the Beach, Team Knight Rider

Growing up the son of a noted mid-century modern architect and professor, Dan Whifler was exposed to the visual arts and great design from the start. A love of music led Whifler to Berklee College of music and a multi-year, full time career as a musician. But the visual arts beckoned and Dan began at the bottom as an art PA. His strong eye for details, intimate knowledge of materials and design, along with great people skills helped Dan excel. Hired exclusively by a small number of firms, Whifler created numerous sets for an endless variety of styles and subjects. Dan is solution oriented, able to boldly project creative ideas while at the same time finding group consensus. He is known for an ability to enhance and execute the visions of the team. Based in Los Angeles, Dan is available for work worldwide

Producers / Production Managers

Keith Coene
Los Angeles

features – Kill Speed, Crazy Jones, Nicolas, Go Fish
television – The Best Sex Ever, Bare Deception, Nightcap

As a Phi Beta Kappa with a B.A. in Logic from UC Irvine, there is no question Keith Coene is a smart guy. Added to this, his M.F.A. from USC in Production has lead to decades long career producing projects while solving problems and saving money. Coene prides himself on a positive attitude and an ability to see all sides of issues. This enables Keith to effectively work with people at all levels of a project and keep a team like atmosphere alive on the set. Fluent in Spanish, based in Los Angeles and available worldwide, Keith Coene is a really good person to have on your team.

Diane Cornell
Portland / Los Angeles / DGA

features – Burningmore Incident, Spiders Web, Last Cry, Special Delivery
television, new media – The Exorcist, 30 Days of Night: Dust to Dust & Blood Trails

Diane Cornell's career in entertainment started in accounting. She quickly learned the intricacies of finance and has since gone on to produce, line produce and UPM features and TV projects. As a DGA UPM, Diane is often hired by producers to do initial cost estimates and assist in financing. Her outstanding communication skills enable her to maintain the loyalty of the lenders, the director and the producer simultaneously while also graciously managing a crew – a difficult balancing act. She is well versed in both union agreements and state tax incentives, knowing how best to utilize the strengths of each. Cornell is proud of her record of being on-time, on-budget (never has had an insurance claim) and looks to do the same for you. Based in Portland, Oregon, Diane is available for work worldwide.

Sarah J. Donohue
Los Angeles / DGA

features – Roslyn, The Canyon, Archie's Final Project, Sinner, Hatchet
television, new media – The Exorcist, 30 Days of Night: Dust to Dust & Blood Trails

Sarah J. Donohue, classically trained in music, came to film production while still in college. After a stint with ABC Television in New York, Sarah arrived in LA as a production coordinator and her hard work, can-do attitude and people skills quickly came to the attention of independent producers. After 15 features in 4 years, Sarah made the jump to line producer. Donohue believes one of her most important roles is bridging the gap between the above and below the line personnel and enabling them to function as a team under financial constraints. Sarah can work as a local in Boston, New York or Los Angeles and has been on location across the United States.

Byron A. Martin
Toronto / DGC

features – Save the Last Dance 2, Chronicles of Riddick, Get Over It television – Monster Warriors, Partners and Crime, Street Time, Odyssey 5

Toronto based Byron A. Martin has a wide variety of credits in film and TV as both UPM and producer along with a work visa for the USA. Byron has produced almost 30 hours of television, shooting projects in Canada, the U.S., Israel, China Honduras, Brazil, India and Panama. In addition, he has over 30 credits as a Location/Unit Manager on projects including X-Men, Driven, Simon Birch and The Ref while working with many prestigious producers such as Lauren Shuler Donner, Ralph Winter, Raffaella De Laurentiis, Dick Wolf, Laurence Mark, John Singleton. Sam Raimi and Jerry Bruckheimer.

Josh Siegel
Los Angeles / DGA, PGA

features – Shot, Any Day, Running with Arnold, Purple Heart television – 24, Gutsy Frog, Fight Science

Josh Siegel knew at an early age he wanted to make movies. Proactively, he raised money while at Johns Hopkins University to create his first film. Siegel has since gone on to produce more than 20 projects, and budgeted in excess of fifty, with budgets of $250k to $30m. His pleasant personality, wit and ability were key in his appointment as head of production for Hannibal Pictures. Josh intimately knows all the stages of production from development through production, post and distribution. He knows how to make your money appear on screen and where you can cut to save funds. And he can do it all with a smile. A member of both the PGA and the DGA, Josh lives in Los Angeles and is available for work worldwide.

Scott Thaler
Los Angeles / DGA

features – Mission Impossible, Battle Los Angeles, Day the Earth Stood Still commercials – Stella Artois, Nissan, Mercedes Benz, Smart Car, Nestles, BMW

Scott Thaler is a seasoned professional Production Management Person with long standing contacts in the Global Film Community. His extensive experience with "high octane" projects, safely shot under extreme conditions around the world, makes him the right choice for any project. He has worked on shows from $300k to $165mil, both in town and overseas. Through his ownership of an independent production service company, Thaler has successfully produced screen tests, 2nd units and pick ups for both film and television projects here and abroad. He is experienced in budgeting, scheduling and managing any project safely and efficiently. Based in Los Angeles, Scott is ready to work anywhere.

Randy Turrow
Los Angeles / DGA

features – Politics of Love, American Primitive, American Crime, Mind Games
Walking Across Egypt, The Dark Backward, Bulletproof

Beginning his career in the ubiquitous 'mail room' of International Creative Management (ICM), Randolph 'Randy' Turrow has gone on to be recognized by his peers as an outstanding film producer. From producing Adam Sandler's first feature to MTV's #1 music videos, Turrow has demonstrated his ability to manage complex projects, stay on budget and maintain a pleasant work environment. His early work at the visual effects/CGI firm, Shockwave, included projects such as Titanic and Starship Troopers and Turrow learned the technical background necessary to manage effects heavy productions. A creator of forward thinking financing and incentives plans, Turrow has also produced small independent films. Randy has given heartily to our industry: as a member of the DGA Western Council, Chair of the DGA UPM/AD Mentor Committee, active on the Visual Effects Committee and a previous winner of the DGA's Council Award for Special Service. He also serves, on the Producers Guild's FilmUSA Committee. Based in Los Angeles, Randy is available for work worldwide.

Michael R. Williams
Los Angeles / DGA

features – How to Make Love Like an Englishman, Game of Death, Next Day Air,
LBJ, Garden State, I Love Your Work, Rhinos, Boogeyman 2,

Having Line-Produced and Production-Managed numerous feature and short films over the past decade, Michael Williams has experience in nearly every form of production. His resumé includes low-budget studio features, independent films, animation and digital media. Williams got his start as an intern at Paramount Pictures after graduating from Loyola Marymount University with a BA in Film Production. He worked his way up from Production Assistant to Producer, working as a cinematographer, editor and assistant director along the way. During this time, Williams learned the ropes of budgeting and scheduling feature films under the tutelage of many old-school producers. Michael actually produced his first short film when he was still in high school and won a state film award his first time out of the gate. Williams has worked with directors such as Adam Goldberg, Zach Braff, John Waters, Larry Clark, Jonas Åkerlund, Don Murphy, Charles Winkler and Alejandro Gonzalez Iñáritu.

First Assistant Directors

Paul Barry

Vancouver / DGA-DGC

features – Metallica Chaos 3D, Underworld Awakening, Final Destination 5 Red Riding Hood; (2nd units) Twilight: New Moon, Seventh Son Fifty Shades Darker & Fifty Shades Freed

Paul Barry is the consummate assistant director. A favorite AD for the Directors, Producers, Cast and Crews he works with, Paul manages to achieve that rare balance of creating an efficient, calm, safe, and enjoyable set while delivering projects on time and on budget. With experience on projects as diverse as I, Robot, Wolverine, and The Shipping News, Paul has worked on some of the biggest features with directors including Zack Snyder, Lasse Hallstrom, Brian De Palma and Oscar winners Gavin Hood and Susanne Bier. Paul has also been on over 400 commercials where he has worked with award winning directors ranging from Sam Bayer to Matthijs van Heijningen and companies including @radical.media, HSI, MJZ and Smuggler. From the Arctic Circle to jungles in India to coordinating fighter jets over the United Kingdom, Paul has worked in many corners of the globe and across North America. With Canadian citizenship, a US O-1 work visa and a EU passport, Paul is a member of both the DGA (Southern Calif. QL) and DGC, and is available for work worldwide.

Dennis Crow

Los Angeles / DGA

features – Isolation, Lifted, The Burrowers, Love Lies Bleeding, Cliffs of Freedom television – Of Two Minds, Iling Ring, William and Kate, Easy Money Lies In Plain Sight

With over 25 years industry experience (in every major US market plus China), Dennis Crow is a seasoned production veteran. Starting his career in NYC, Crow quickly developed strong set etiquette and management skills. He learned early to give everyone, from producer to extra, respect, attention and understanding. His outstanding communication skills are coupled with an ability to schedule projects tightly while also developing solutions when the unexpected occurs. Dennis is well liked by directors and producers who envy his attention to details. Whether working with complex stunts, extremely large groups of people or intimate scenes with fragile actors, Dennis is always the calm eye of the storm. Based in Los Angeles, Crow is available for work worldwide.

Greg Dobbin

Los Angeles / DGA

commercials – Honda, Porsche, Lexus, BMW, Jeep, Toyota, Absolut Vodka Bud Light, Hershey, Burger King, Nike, Brand Jordan, Zales Jewelry Bank of America, Philips Electronics

Comfortable at 12,000 feet in the Rockies, or aboard a helicopter, insert car or on stage in Los Angeles, Greg Dobbin is a director's dream. Coolly calm, pleasantly efficient and always on top of the game, Dobbin will provide workable solutions to any problem while saving the producer money and time. Greg has worked worldwide on nearly 600 spots for the biggest companies and clients. He has worked with many international celebrities such as Bill Gates, Jerry Seinfeld, Tiger Woods, Derek Jeter, Dwyane Wade, Chris Paul and Stuart Cink. Based near Vancouver and possessing a US Work Visa, Greg is available for work worldwide.

Rosser Goodman

Los Angeles

features – The People Speak, Little Hercules in 3D, Dark Ride television – Honeymoon With Mom, Untold Stories of the ER commercials/videos – Spike TV, Animal Planet, Disney Playhouse, HBO, Bratz Dolls, Jenny Craig

Rosser is strategically organized and ultra detail oriented. She is a master scheduler and keeps the set moving. She brings humor to the job and is no screamer. Rosser forms strong alliances with director, producers and all department heads. She keeps communication flowing and supports a balanced, creative environment. As an industry veteran with over 15 years of experience, Rosser is an extreme asset in prep through wrap. She relishes working on projects of all varieties and meeting any challenge.

Jay Guerra
Los Angeles/DGA

features – Laying Down Arms, Bitter Creek; (2nd unit) Crazy/Beautiful, The Rock television – Friends with Benefits, E-Ring, Best Friends Forever

A graduate of Loyola Marymount University, and the DGA training program, Jay Guerra is a seasoned Assistant Director. Mentored by the late Newt Arnold, and having assisted directors as varied as Arthur Hiller, William Friedkin, Penelope Spheeris and James Burrows, Guerra has developed a reputation for providing unparalleled commitment to the task at hand, regardless of the scope of the project. He is known for treating every member of the cast and crew with the same level of respect for the individual and the craft they perform. An avid tennis and chess player, Jay lives in San Pedro, CA and is available for work worldwide.

Farand Heydari
Los Angeles

features – Forzen Peas, Trouble Sleeping, Tar, Kittens In A Cage
television – Marvel Agents of Shield: Double Agent, Loose Screws, Shapetown commercials – Lexus RX, HP, Mattel, Bosch, Coach

Farand Heydari's roots are in film. His uncle is a distinguished DOP, while his father was both an actor and director. Growing up in the Bay area, Heydari knew early on production was his forte. He attended San Francisco State (obtaining deans list standing) and graduated with a degree in Cinema. Farand brings positive morale and strong leadership to each show. He's flexible, easy to work with but firm when necessary. His goal is to organize each project not only for maximum efficiency but also maximum freedom for creativity by cast and crew. Problem solving and solutions are his tools, and a main reason directors return to hire him. Based in Los Angeles, Farand is available for work worldwide.

Christopher Landry
Eastern Europe/DGA

features – 5 Days Of War, Effect 30, Mirrors, Man With A Movie, Karla, One Point 0
Hatfields & McCoys, The Scorpion King 4, The Dying of the Light
The Forest, High Strung, Queen & Country, The Keeping Room

Christopher began his career at the BBC in London as Assistant Floor Manager working on various classic and Shakespearean productions. In 1990, he returned to his native US. As Assistant Director, Christopher worked on numerous studio and independent features under such directors as Oliver Stone, Barry Levinson and David Lynch. Since then he has worked on over sixty pictures as line producer and/or A.D. Christopher is based in Eastern Europe.

John M. Nelson
Los Angeles/DGA

features – Flypaper, The Road, The Passion of the Christ, My First Mister
television – LA-Vegas, SuperGirl, Empire, Survivor's Remorse, Entourage

John Nelson's DNA is steeped in filmmaking. A third generation DGA member, he's spent years tuning his craft with projects shot in India, Greece, Israel, Jamaica and the 4 corners of the USA (including Hawaii). With equal experience in features and TV – a testament to his versatility and knowledge – Nelson runs a calm, confident set. He treats all with respect, communicates fully and stays steps ahead of the DP and director to make each day efficient, productive and enjoyable for all. An avid cyclist, paddle boarder and fly fisherman, John lives in Southern California and is available for work worldwide.

Ian J. Putnam
Los Angeles/DGA

features – Farmhouse, Lost In Austin, Life Partners, Fanpires in Venice television – Bag Boy, Tim and Eric's Bedroom Stories, Drone, Helio commercials – Post Cereals, LA Music Center, CDC, Build-a-Bear Workshops

Ten years of doing Theatre in the Pacific Northwest before films gave Ian Putnam the experience and insight that would enable him to be the successful AD he is today. Ian is, in his own right, an artist in the labyrinth that is scheduling. The odds always seem to be against an AD in keeping a schedule fluid, and yet Putnam always finds a clever balance to make it work for the creative vision as well as the budget. The best part of his participation in a film though is the collaboration. Being the sounding board for the creative vision and producing an environment where the best work culminates into life is the reward an AD gets for making their day. Based in Los Angeles, Ian is available worldwide.

ALL CREW AGENCY

2920 West Olive Avenue Suite 201 Burbank CA 91505
818 206 0144 crew@allcrewagency.com

Lyon Reese
Los Angeles/DGA

features – Anna Nicole, Night Stalker, Purple Heart, Laura Smiles commercials, videos – Mini Cooper, Mervyn's, Kinky, RuPaul, Lil' Romeo, Queens of the Stone Age

Lyon is one of those rare AD's whose experience is distributed evenly over the different media disciplines. His credits include feature work for Columbia/TriStar and RKO Pictures, commercials for Oil Factory and Stun Creative, and music videos for A Band Apart, DNA, FM Rocks and The Director's Bureau. Lyon believes in creating a strong structural center for a production to base from, consistently making it a priority to keep heads of department informed, while still providing the Director and DP flexibility needed to make strong aesthetic choices. This system has been especially successful when working with younger, or newer, directors transitioning into larger budgets and more heavily staffed departments. Lyon is feature bonded through Film Finances, holds a current US passport, and is a sucker for locations where he can surf, SCUBA or rock climb after the job wraps.

John M. Tyson
New York City/DGA

features – The Intern, Generation UM, Sideways, Private Lives of Pippa Lee television – Creative Galaxy, Onion News Network, Broad City, The Confession

With a Master of Arts from The London International Film School, membership in the DGA, and an undying love of storytelling John (JT) Tyson is one of the top Assistant Directors working today. From feature films to TV series, music videos and commercials JT is efficient and wildly productive, supporting each member of the crew in accomplishing their best work. John brings an unsurpassed ability to execute a vision from conception to final cut on every project. His multi-faceted experience makes him uniquely qualified to mobilize a team to achieve a unified creative goal. When not racking up frequent flyer miles, JT resides in New York City and Kingston, NY. and is available for work worldwide.

Patricia Dyer Walden
Los Angeles, Vancouver / DGA, DGC

television – Stolen Daughter, Rocy Road, Mail Order Bride multi-camera – Mr. Young, Spun Out, Always A Bridesmaid, Under One Roof

Patricia Dyer Walden is an experienced, well credited and well referenced 1st Assistant Director and Stage Manager in multiple Production formats. She is experienced in Comedy (single camera and multi camera sit com), Live Audience, Live Events, Television Series, Mini Series, Movies of the Week and International Productions with Korea, Germany and China. When not in prep or production Patricia works on boards and script breakdowns for several US and Canadian Production Companies. Patricia is a member of the DGA (Southern Calif. Patricia's location experience includes Seoul South Korea, Oahu Hawaii, The Big Island Hawaii, Toronto Ontario, Winnipeg Manitoba, Miami Florida, Washington DC, Chicago Illinois, Charleston South Carolina, Richmond West Virginia.

Stewart A. Young
Toronto, Dallas / DGA / DGC

features – Trade of Innocents, Virgin Suicides, Drool, Julia X 3D, The Imposter television – Falling Skies, Metal Tornado, Blue Seduction, Inspector Mom

Stewart Young knew from an early age he wanted to be in the entertainment industry. Early stints at acting quickly proved he was more valuable behind the camera, and so Young embarked on learning everything. After a college production degree and a few years at a local TV station, Stewart started his own production company, exposing him to all facets of production. It did not take him long to realize his greatest skills were in organization and scheduling so he moved into the AD department and started to work on long format shows. He was exposed to some of the best and worst A.D.'s working at the time, honing his skills by combining the best from every one he worked with. Stewart's motto is simple – never yell unless the building is on fire or someone is about to get run over, let professionals do the jobs they are hired to do, do as few unit moves as possible, wrap as early as possible, do as little night shooting as you can get away with and above all else – Have some fun. Stewart splits his time between Toronto and Dallas.

Script Supervisors

Los Angeles (IA 695)

features – Beauty in the Broken, The Cottage, Nic & Tristan Go Mega Dega television – Marco Polo, Grandfathered, Criminal Minds: Suspect Behavior

With a love of cinema, Jaya Jayaraja always knew he'd end up working in film and TV. He started out as a cable person, advanced to boom operator and ultimately gained the mixer's seat. Easy going and quick to laugh but with a stern work ethic that delivers clean clear tracks no matter the environment. Jaya has mixed for directors including Joachim Ronning, Espen Sandberg, Randall Zisk, Mark Tinker, Beth McCarthy-Miller, Michael Spiller, and John Badham. Director's vision and story come first, and he understands the importance of staying in tune with production and one step ahead of camera. Totally in sync with the bottom line, he is acutely aware how to make it work within the confines of a budget while utilizing state of the art digital equipment. Jaya is based in Los Angeles and available for work worldwide.

Clark King, CAS
Los Angeles (IA 695)

features – Lucky Stiff, The Muppets (2nd unit), Father's Day, Free Willy television – Pereception, Glory Daze, Numb3rs, Boston Legal, The Practice

The entertainment business runs through Clark King's blood. His grandfather was an established actor in many films; his stepfather was an ASC Lifetime Achievement Award winning DP and his father started as a stuntman before switching to the less painful profession of sound. Growing up around soundstages, King started his career at a young age in post and production sound after competing as an Olympic speed skater. With thirty years of mixing production sound there isn't anything Clark can't handle. Clark is based in Los Angeles but happy to travel anywhere.

Resul Pookutty, CAS
India/Worldwide

 features – Slumdog Millionaire, Musafir, Blue, The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel

Resul Pookutty is truly a 'Director of Sound'. The leading proponent of sync sound recording in India, Pookutty's work as sound designer, production mixer, effects and foley editor, and post production re-recording mixer has brought film sound to a new level and international acclaim for Resul. With Oscar, BAFTA and C.A.S. awards for Slumdog Millionaire's multi-dimensional soundtrack, Resul is in high demand worldwide. The youngest of eight children, Pookutty graduated from the Film and Television Institute of India and began his career in Mumbai as a sound designer on Private Detective. Passionate about sound, Resul is the master of a multitude of techniques and equipment. He considers himself an ambassador of India when abroad and is proud of his cultural heritage, saying that Bollywood films have "taught [him] the art of blending technology with aesthetics." Resul is available for work worldwide.

Los Angeles (IA 695)

 features – Shrink, Roman Polanski: Wanted & Desired, War of the Worlds
 television – The Event, Heroes, Grey's Anatomy, Weeds, The E Ring, The O.C.

Being the 'go to guy' for Hollywood's premiere sound mixers puts Scott Stolz in an enviable position. With a degree in Electronic Media from the University of Cincinnati, Stolz has over 15 years experience as a Production Sound Mixer. Over the years mixers and producers have learned to depend on Scott to get the tracks quickly and cleanly while remaining pleasant in the process. They know he'll be well prepared and bring an upbeat, positive attitude to his job. Scott's work, utilizing state-of-the-art sound equipment including the coveted Sonosax SX-ST8D mixing panel, has garnered him an Emmy Award for Best Sound. Whether it is a straightforward TV series or a complicated multi-camera 2nd unit, producers can count on Stolz's seamless ability to get the job done.
