

ROBERT SADUSKI

Costume Designer

member, Costume Designers Guild, local 892

Rob Saduski began his career at Western Costume where he learned from some of the most celebrated names in the industry including designers Halston and Rudi Gernreich. Rob has since worked on such films as 'Batman and Robin', 'Eyes Wide Shut' and 'Diabolique'. Outside of production, Saduski also toured as personal costumer with Madonna, David Bowie and Barbra Streisand. He collaborated with Gianni Versace on the Absolut Versace Campaign, the 1999 Pirelli Calendar (working directly with photographer Herb Ritts). Rob continues to work in film and television as well as the fashion world. In addition to the pilot of '24', he styled the pilot of the Bravo Channel hit, 'Blow Out', featuring celebrity hair stylist Jonathon Antin. Based in Los Angeles, Rob is available for work worldwide.
